

Cincinnati United to Host Charity Game for Top Soccer

October 28, 2009

Cincinnati, Ohio -- Cincinnati United Soccer Club will be hosting a charity soccer game to benefit Cincinnati Top Soccer on Sunday, November 8 at 5:30pm at Cincinnati Hills Christian Academy. The stadium is located at the high school campus, 11525 Snider Road, Cincinnati.

The entire public is invited to attend this event. The cost is $1 per person at the gate. A raffle will also be held, as well as a halftime contest for kids. Directors, coaches, and trainers from Cincinnati United will compete against each other in the charity game.

All proceeds of the game will go towards Cincinnati Top Soccer. Top Soccer is a program designed to bring the opportunity of learning and playing soccer to any boy or girl, who has a mental or physical disability.

For more information about the event, please contact Bobby Puppione from Cincinnati United or Randy Corey of Cincinnati Top Soccer. Their contact information is provided below.

Cincinnati United, Ohio South's largest youth soccer club, seeks to provide children and young adults a full range of opportunities to enjoy and develop in soccer, at a level appropriate for their age, ability, and interest. Employing top coaches and trainers in a player-centric environment that focuses on training, development, and fostering a life long love of the beautiful game at all levels make Cincinnati United the destination soccer club of Ohio South.
